

sports extra

with Rhys O'Neill >>oneillrh@qst.newsltd.com.au >>phone: 3826 2679

Nominate now for Riverlakes Open

GOLF >> Riverlakes Veterans will host their Logan City Council-sponsored Open Golf Championship on June 10.

Entry costs $17 for non-members and $11 for members, which includes prizes for best gross and net score, closest to the pin and most accurate drive.

Competition will start at 8am at Gleneagles Drive, Cornubia.

■ Closing date for entry is Thursday. Phone Norma Cipa on 3427 5665.

Challenge set to tip off next month

BASKETBALL >> Logan Basketball's East Coast Challenge will tip off in less than a month.

The long-running competition, fielding teams aged 30-plus from throughout the state, will be held at Cornubia Insports from June 6-8.

Nominations for the event are still being accepted.

■ Phone Jim Kerr on 3826 2631 or email kerrj@qst.newsltd.com.au.

Echidnas triumph in tournament

BADMINTON >> The Echidnas were the surprise winners of the Southside Daytime Badminton Tournament held at Cornubia Recreational Centre on Monday.

The team, consisting of Judy Van Camp, Jade Yap, Jess Khalil, Ted Chen, Eunice Paulett and Jane Tauati surprised the Gonnas to clinch the social event.

■ Email ilesjb@bigpond.net.au to register for the next event, which is on July 28 at the Sunshine Coast.

Butcher sponsors under-15 team

RUGBY LEAGUE >> East Springwood's under-15 lineup is playing with plenty of beef this season after Patton's Big Gun Butcher joined up as sponsor.

The Underwood shop has chipped in a meat tray to raffle at each of the team's home games.

The opening round saw $85 added to the team kitty through the raffle.

■ To sponsor the side, phone Debbie on 0405 320 330.

PCYC to host night of fights

BOXING >> Pugilist enthusiasts will be in for a fun Saturday next weekend as the Beenleigh PCYC hosts its annual boxing tournament. To be held on May 30, the PCYC will feature between 30 and 35 fights.

Fighters include several state and national champions, with Beenleigh's undefeated national champion Shahn Rye taking on Matt

Fried in the 11 to 12 year-olds.

Doors open at 5pm with bout one starting at 6pm. Entry will be $10 for adults, $5 for children aged 12 years under and $25 for a family pass.

■ Phone Mark Haestier at the Beenleigh PCYC on 3380 1777.

United campaign back on track

SOCCER >> Logan United's quest for a breakthrough finals appearance is back on track after a 2-1 weekend win against Whitsunday Miners.

With recent results dampening some of the early-season promise, United found form again through goals to ex-Redlands player Cameron Hunts and Rhys Jackson.

United now have a share of sixth and will fancy their chances against last-placed Bundaberg at Clem Jones Fields at 4pm on Sunday.

Boyd named in Pacific Cup side

HANDBALL >> Alberton handballer Rosa Boyd will join four state colleagues in the Australian women's side for the Pacific Cup next week.

The event, doubling as a World Championship qualifier for Oceania, will see Boyd link with fellow Queenslanders Mary and Veronica Kelly, Melissa Mellor and Jemima Harbort in Katsu Kinoshita's squad.

Chandler's Sleeman Sports Centre will host the event from Monday to Saturday.

Meanwhile, the Junior National Championships will also run at the venue from Thursday to Saturday.

Depleted Village share points

SOCCER >> A 10-man Logan Village soccer team produced a gutsy performance to get the spoils against Redlands in under-11 action last weekend.

With a host of players unable to attend the match, Logan Village could have been forgiven for turning in a below-par effort out on the pitch that day.

But in very a disciplined response, Logan Village won the game 3-0.

In under-12 action, Logan Village gained local bragging rights against Loganholme, winning 3-1, but Rochedale proved too strong, being 8-1 winners, in the under-14s.

The club's senior team won 4-2 against Mt Gravatt but the senior women went down 1-0 to Regents Park.

Brothers' confidence boosted by draw

RUGBY LEAGUE >> A solid team effort has given Mustang Brothers their biggest confidence boost yet for season 2009.

Mike Cleeland, Jake Hewitt, Kane Browne and Mitchell Kiehne starred for the under-14 side against Wynnum in their 10-all draw.

A massive effort from Mitchell Small, who earned man of the match honours, proved the biggest difference.

The under-16s, led by Scott Drotini and Luke Shanley, downed Redlands 34-0 while Ashley Watson and Shane Hansen were the under-20s' best in their 40-12 loss to Sunnybank.

The championships are from June 2-8 and the final will be at Subiaco as the curtain-raiser to the AFL game between the West Coast Eagles and Geelong.

Muay Thai champions to face off at Arena

MUAY THAI >> Muay Thai boxing is set to return to the Beenleigh Arena with another sensational show this Saturday.

The anticipated rematch from Eruption 4 between WMC Oceania champion Ghot Seur Noi and IMKO world champion Aaron Leigh highlights the action.

The fights are tomorrow at 2-10 Milne St. ■ For ticket sales and information, phone Paul Demicoli on 0409 411 109 or go to the website: www.oztix.com.au.

Origin stars headline Sportsman's Dinner

SPORTSMANS DINNER >> Queensland State of Origin rugby league representatives Chris Walker and Ashley Harrison will spearhead Springwood Bowls Club's Sportsman's Dinner on June 9.

Commonwealth Games bowler Kelvin Kerkow joins the pair as guest speakers on the night, as well as two comedians.

Tickets cost $50 per head and include a two-course meal, some beverages and sporting memorabilia auction.

■ Phone Club Springwood on 3208 3211.

Gealy ton sets up Park Ridge win

CRICKET >> Nick Gealy produced his greatest innings in the middle to hand Park Ridge its first win of the C2 Warehouse winter season on Saturday.

Electing to bat at Boronia Heights State High School, Ridge always looked in control as Gealy belted 140 to set up a massive first dig total.

He was well supported by Clyde Alley (25), Michael Blight (22) and Doug Crees (20no).

In reply, the Freeballers could only manage 3-178 with Clyde Alley (1-16) and Reece Drake (1-10) doing damage with the ball.

Park Ridge will start winter training for junior players on June 17 at Hubner Park.

■ Phone Lewis Mills on 3800 2008.

Horror weekend of results for Brothers

RUGBY LEAGUE >> Mustang Brothers endured a horror week of senior results, punctuated by the under-20s' loss to Sunnybank.

Pushing for a finals berth, Brothers were confident of getting the job done against a Sunnybank side staving off the wooden spoon, but the underdogs responded to post a 40-12 win.

In Southside 4, Centenary beat Brothers 48-12 to dent their top-four aspirations.

Six Cobras earn state team call-up

AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL >> Logan will be well represented at the women's national championships after six Cobras earned call-ups to next month's competition.

Marlo Brack, Katie Brennan, Pippa McWha, Aasta O'Connor, Mariah Pasfield and Jade Pregelj were all included after impressing at the state level.

The six were chosen in the 24-player squad to compete against Victoria, Western Australia and the ACT.

Two wins to start Holden Cruze Cup

BRISBANE South's winning start to the 2009 Holden Cruze Cup and Ergon Energy Championship campaigns will have Logan's fans salivating.

The squads produced matching efforts against the Brisbane West Lions on Sunday.

In the Holden Cruze Cup, twin towers Laura Stokes and Shannon Holmes converted some final term dominance into an initial nail-

Netball round-up

Garry Svendsen

biting match-winning lead.

Held at 24-24 at the main break, coach Mellissa O'Brien's decision to toss unheralded Cassandra Swadling on to the wing sparked the 64-47 win.

In the earlier match, the lead was two at the break before Amelianne Wells and Monique French shifted gears to steer the 57-44 win.

The Wildcats host Carina Tigers at Cornubia Insports on Saturday at 4pm and 5.30pm.

FIRST CARNIVAL: Last weekend saw the newly-formed Northern Gold Coast Association hold its first club carnival.

There were 37 teams competing in the 11-17 years division and, to show the popularity of the sport, 27 teams lined up in the 7-10 age groups.

Tweed Heads cancelled its carnival but the fun continues at Logan City, Downey Park, Metropolitan Districts and Rockhampton this weekend.

Queensland fans have the opportunity to support the Aussies in their trans-Tasman Test match on September 13 at the Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre.

■ Visit www.ticketek.com.au.

INDOOR TITLES: The Indoor Netball Federation of Queensland is holding its state titles, featuring mixed B and C grades, at Toowoomba Indoor Sports this weekend. The following week the venue will be OzSports at Springwood. ■ Go to www.infq.com.au.