

Zagar welcomes the Australians

VECERNJI LIST – 14/01/2009

After staying in Beli Manastir and Pozega, Australian handballers have been in Nasice. Before the last night's game, they were welcomed by the town mayor Kresimir Zagar who wished them success at the World Championships. –

We feel very comfortable in Croatia and the training facilities here in Nasice are really good – said John Calvert, the Manager of the Australian Team, which played a training match against Nexe handball club in the sport's hall OS Kralj Tomislav.
